

Three Recipes for the Week.

Five-ingredient simple. Real food. Repeatable.

BREAKFAST

5 min prep · no cook · serves 1

Overnight Oats

INGREDIENTS

- ½ cup rolled oats
- ½ cup milk (any kind)
- ¼ cup plain yogurt
- 1 tsp honey or maple syrup
- ½ cup berries (fresh or frozen)

STEPS

1. Combine oats, milk, yogurt, and honey in a jar.
2. Stir well, cover, and refrigerate overnight.
3. Top with berries in the morning. Eat cold.

TIP Make 3 jars at once for the workweek — adds 30 seconds, saves 3 mornings.

LUNCH

10 min · serves 1

Lemon-Tahini Power Bowl

INGREDIENTS

- 1 cup cooked grain (rice, quinoa, farro)
- 1 cup canned chickpeas (rinsed)
- 2 cups greens (spinach, arugula)
- Cucumber and tomato, chopped
- Dressing: 1 tbsp tahini + juice of ½ lemon + warm water + pinch salt

STEPS

1. Layer grain, chickpeas, greens, and chopped veg in a bowl.
2. Whisk dressing until creamy. Drizzle generously.
3. Toss and eat. Hot, cold, or anywhere in between.

TIP Cook grains on Sunday. The bowl assembles in 3 minutes any day after.

DINNER

10 min prep · 25 min oven · serves 2

Sheet-Pan Chicken & Veggies

INGREDIENTS

- 2 chicken thighs (bone-in or boneless)
- 1 small head broccoli, cut into florets
- 1 medium sweet potato, cubed
- 2 tbsp olive oil, salt, pepper
- Optional: garlic, paprika, lemon

STEPS

1. Heat oven to 425°F. Line a sheet pan with parchment.
2. Toss veggies with 1 tbsp oil, salt, pepper. Spread on pan.
3. Rub chicken with remaining oil + seasoning. Add to pan.
4. Roast 22–25 min until chicken is cooked through and veg is browned.

TIP One pan, one cleanup. Double the recipe and tomorrow's lunch is free.